About Me

Hi, my name's Brett and I'm a senior network system administrator. As well as administrating systems I also have experience making software and web apps. I have worked at a number of companies gaining teamwork and leadership skills.

I am most skilled in: AWS and Eating Pizza

Projects

Super awesome project

github.com/sproogen

 This is probably one of the greatest apps ever created, if you don't agree you're probably wrong.

I started this project as a way if learning React and it has since grown into a fully fledged app. I have learned many skills through this and been I'm very proud of having this in my portfolio. If you don't have a project as awesome as this I would advise you make one.

Experience

The Boring Company

Senior Network System Administrator

November 2017 - Present

boringcompany.com

Solving 21st century problems by diging holes and making game changing products like the not a flamethrower

Every company needs its networks properly administered and The Boring Compay is no exception. Digging holes is hard and I play my part making sure the whole company stays connected. I lead a team of 5 people and enjoy driving the company to try new technologies.

Education

Harvard University

BSc Computer Science

2010 - 2013

Established in 1636, Harvard is the oldest higher education institution in the United States, and is widely regarded in terms of its influence, reputation, and academic pedigree as a leading university in not just the US but also the world.

During my time at Harvard I learnt most of my key skills that have I have taken through my career such as teamwork and working to tight deadlines. I thouroughly enjoyed my time as university and learnt a lot about a healthy work life balance.

I spent a lot of my free time as a committee member of the Harvard Mountaineering Club taking on roles such as Trip Secretary and Vice-President.
